An ideal introduction to rambling. We offer a broad range of walks (from 5 to 10 miles) taking you through the hills & valleys of our wonderful country. There's something for everybody, and you don't have to join the Ramblers Association. If you're unsure of your fitness, or your commitment, the Ramblers' public walks could be just what you're looking for. Why not give them a try?

Sundays 2026	DEPART	ROUTE (see over)	DESTINATION See over leaf for pick-up points	DUE BACK (approx)	Adult Fare
April 12th	9.00 Lime St. William Brown St.	1	LLANGOLLEN & DEE ESTUARY This popular Denbighshire town is splendidly located on the River Dee surrounded by hills waiting to be explored. Attractions include the Llangollen Canal, Horseshoe Falls, Castell Dinas Bran (The Crow's Fortress) and the Panorama Walk.	19.30	£20.00
May 10th	9.00 Woodside	4	STAVELEY & KENTMERE VALLEY This pretty Lake District village lies at the confluence of the Rivers Kent & Gowan in the Kentmere Valley, four miles north of Kendal. The village name is derived from a long history of woodworking, once a major industry.	20.15	£20.00
June 7th	9.00 Woodside	2	PORTHMADOG & GLASLYN ESTUARY Porthmadog was once a thriving seaport carrying slate from the quarries of North Wales. The Glaslyn estuary with its stunning backdrop of the mountains of Snowdonia gives outstanding opportunities for varied walks.	20.45	£20.00
July 5th	9.00 Woodside	4	POOLEY BRIDGE & ULLSWATER We are visiting the Northern Lake District and the popular tourist centre of Pooley Bridge. High fells, remote tarns and waterfalls can all be found as well as gentler lakeside walking.	20.30	£20.00
August 9th	9.00 Woodside	3	BAKEWELL & DERBYSHIRE PEAK DISTRICT Enjoy the Peak District National Park and lovely Bakewell on the River Wye. Explore the walking trails that abound in this land of spectacular dales, picturesque, remote villages and fascinating industrial heritage.	20.30	£20.00
September 6th	9.00 Lime St. William Brown St.	2	MUCH WENLOCK & SHROPSHIRE HILLS This medieval market town lies within the peaceful and unspoilt Shropshire Hills. The Shropshire Way and Jack Mytton Way both invite us to this 'Walkers Welcome Town'.	20.45	£20.00
October 4th	9.00 Woodside	4	UPPERMILL & SADDLEWORTH MOOR The Pennine town of Uppermill is situated in the Tame Valley with the Peak District National Park lying to the east. We can explore the industrial heritage of this mill town by following the Huddersfield Canal and the Tame Valley Way.	20.00	£20.00
